

American Association of Hispanics in Higher Education, Inc.

AAHHE proudly announces its 15th Annual AAHHE National Conference
¡Adelante! Honoring Latinx Courage and Conciencia

March 5 - March 7, 2020
Hilton Orange County/Costa Mesa Hotel
Costa Mesa, California

CONCURRENT SESSIONS - CALL FOR PROPOSALS!

Choose from one of the following session streams:

Policy, Advocacy, and Legislation

This stream addresses the role of diversity and equity initiatives in education. Scholars and practitioners are invited to submit proposals related to:

- o DACA/Dreamers and Immigration
- o Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Initiatives and CDOs
- o Food and Housing Insecurity
- o HSIs to HGIs, Leadership Needs at HSIs
- o Financial Aid and Literacy
- o Title V Funding
- o Transfer Pathways (guided pathways)

Latinx Student Persistence and Success

This stream seeks to showcase research, policies, and practices that yield positive educational outcomes for Latinx students. We encourage proposals that demonstrate cross- and interdisciplinary scholarship, empirically grounded practices, and a range of methodologies. Scholars are invited to submit proposals related to:

- o Pipeline-Related Research
- o Transition to College
- o Increasing Graduation (persistence/retention)
- o Graduate School and Beyond
- o STEM Education and Career Pathways
- o Mental Health on College Campuses

Latinx Community Engagement and Mobilization

This stream encompasses the importance of civic engagement, economic and political power, and social justice through activism in education. Scholars and practitioners are invited to submit proposals related to:

- o Community and Corporate Partnerships and Civic Engagement
- o Political and Economic Power
- o Social Justice, Activism, and Social Movements
- o Voting and Civic Responsibility
- o 2020 Census

Socialization in the Academy and Professional Development

This strand encourages skill-based workshops that highlight the socialization to higher education. Scholars and practitioners are invited to submit proposals related to:

- o Applying to Graduate School
- o Tenure and Promotion
- o Grant Writing
- o Academic Publishing
- o Teaching (i.e., culturally-responsive pedagogy, cooperative learning, etc.)
- o Pathways to Nonacademic and Academic Administrative and Leadership Positions

Additionally, choose from one of the following concurrent session types:

- Symposium
- Research Paper Session
- Skill-Based Workshop
- Roundtable
- Poster Session

Submission deadline: Friday, September 27, 2019!

Please refer to the AAHHE website for more information and proposal application: www.AAHHE.org